from the chronicler

The month of October holds special meaning for our Barony. It was the month of October AS XVII (1982) that the first meeting to establish what would become Unser Hafen was held. It was October AS XXV (1990) that Unser Hafen became a barony. And, most notably for this issue, it was October AS XXVIII (1993) that The Tosspot had its first color cover. That cover, with the text slightly altered to fit the current date and information, again graces the October cover as Unser Hafen celebrates 25 years since that founding meeting and 17 since becoming a barony and The Tosspot celebrates 14 years since that first color cover.

This month also holds a last. This is the last paid subscription issue of The Tosspot. After declining subscriptions and submissions due to the increase of the importance of the Internet in our fair Barony, many have come to the conclusion that the days of the Tosspot on paper have come to a glorious end. So, The Tosspot is taking a step forward. As of November 1, The Tosspot subscription will be free and it will be only available electronically. For some, this may not work so it may be available in print upon verification of need. That change will officially start with this coming February Tosspot.

The Tosspot is coming up on a very special anniversary. The January 2008 issue marks the 25th Anniversary of the first issue. To celebrate, The Tosspot will have its final paper issue and will include a re-typeset facsimile of Issue No. 1. Everyone currently on the mailing list will get one as will anyone who asks for one. Additionally, anyone of any significance that I can remember and find a current address on will receive one as well.

Anyone wanting to aid in the rebirth of the Tosspot in electronic from should contact me. I am looking for a replacement who can take over sometime early in 2008. I am also interested in anyone who would care to help work on the 25th Anniversary issue.

And my sincere apologies for the extreme lateness of this issue. I was gearing up to work on it when a death in my family set things in a whirl for 13 days. Things still aren't quite normal, but close enough considering.

Well, there are only three more paper issues left. Enjoy and contribute.

In Service,

Lord Robin of Bristol

Their Excellencies Carrick and Katherina of Caer Galen invite you to join them as they visit the Sultan of Malwa, Nasir ud Din, in his capital city of Mandu, often called Shadiabad, the City of Joy for a day of exciting events and fabulous food.

The year is 1505 AD, and the city of Mandu is renowned through out India as a place of learning, beauty and art. The famed book Ni'matnama "The Sultan's Book of Delights", has finally been shown to the public. Commissioned by the Sultan's father, Ghiyath ud Din and finished by Sultan Nasir ud Din after his father's death, the book lists many of Ghityath ud Din's favorite foods, scents and advice on living. Come join with Their Excellencies as they sample some of the recipes from the Ni'matnma and enjoy the pleasures of the court of the Sultan.

The court of the Sultan follows the traditions of Islam. Therefore, Her Excellency must have female guards for the occasion, least there be any stain on her honor in the eyes of the court of the Sultan. Therefore, there will be two tournaments, one light, one heavy for female fighters only to choose Her Excellency's guards for the day.

To add to the excitement of the day, the traditional Caer Galen Midwinter activities will be held. There will be a tournament to allow Their Excellencies to choose the new Captain of the Guard. If you dare (and have signed your waiver) Caer Galen Musical Chairs will be once again allow Outlanders to test their mettle against all comers. The election of the Harp of Caer Galen will also be held.

To add to the excitement of the day, it is time once again for Caer Galenites to elect the Doge! In true Caer Galen fashion, you will need to bring cash (preferably in small unmarked bills) or check to have your vote counted.

Directions: From the north or south, make your way to I-25 and Highway 119, take 119 west into Longmont. Highway 119 turns into Ken Pratt Boulevard in Longmont. In Longmont, Ken Pratt Boulevard crosses Main Street/287, then the next right is South Pratt Parkway. Take South Pratt Parkway to Missouri Avenue, turn right on Missouri Avenue. The church is at the South West corner of Missouri Avenue and Bross Lane.
